

The City of Hudson Finance Committee presents

The City of Hudson 2019 Event Awards

Planning a Public Event in the City of Hudson this year? Would you like to apply for financial assistance from the City for your event for 2019?

The City of Hudson Tourism Board has provided the City of Hudson's Finance Committee, $20,000 to award to programs to support special events occurring in the City of Hudson in order to promote tourism within the City.

This year, we are posting an application period so all may be made aware and may apply.

The City of Hudson provides financial assistance to events that have an impact on the economic & social fabric of Our City. So, no matter how small or large, if your event has a positive effect on the whole City of Hudson, we encourage you to apply!

Apply Today! Applications are due June 14, 2019

Application criteria as follows:

1. A Mass Gathering application must be submitted before applying
2. All applicants/organizations must be city residents
3. Requested amount of funding by City
4. Entrance or door fees CANNOT be charged to gain entry to the event
5. If awarded, the grantee will be required to submit a report of the event
6. Please attach a full event budget; including income & expenses - see attached format
7. Answer the application questions, following this announcement - you can either answer in the form or provide a proposal that answers these questions
